GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS EUBANKS TO PLUMBING, HEATING AND FIRE SPRINKLER CONTRACTORS BOARD

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed William H. Eubanks of Wilmington to the North Carolina State Board of Examiners for Plumbing, Heating and Fire Sprinkler Contractors.

Eubanks is the chief code enforcement official for the New Hanover County Inspection Department's Plumbing Division. He received a Bachelor's degree in social studies from Atlantic Christian College in Wilson.

The board protects public health, safety and welfare by prescribing the standard of competence, experience and efficiency by examining applicants for plumbing, heating and fire sprinkler contractors' licenses. It also enforces laws and holds hearings for the benefit of licensees and the general public. The board has seven members, each serving a seven-year term. The governor appoints all members.
